Sun. 26th June: – As we gather together to celebrate the Sunday Eucharist, we are called, despite the trials and temptations that come our way, to remain strong in faith, hope and love.

Readings for Today – Sun. 26th June: - The First Reading: The Lord demands an immediate response when he calls Elisha and the prophet rises to the challenge. The Second Reading: St. Paul reminds the Galatian church that they were called to freedom but a freedom that brings with it the responsibility to love our neighbour as ourselves. The Gospel: Despite danger and rejection Jesus is determined to do the Father's will and moves toward Jerusalem as he prepares the disciples for his departure from them.

Bethany Bereavement Support Group – will have no meetings in July or August. Our meetings will resume again in September on the 3rd Wednesday as Planned Giving Envelopes: The new year for the Planned Giving Envelopes starts from July and have all been distributed. If anyone hasn't received the envelopes or would like to take a box, please contact the Sacristy or Anne in the parish office. This money goes towards the running of our own Parish. We thank all those who contribute faithfully every week.

Cemetery Mass Esker: Will take place on Sunday, 28th August at 3pm (weather permitting).

An Act of Mercy in the Year of Mercy: Many of our parishioners are from Kerela in the South of India. Bishop Jacob Muricken of Palai donated one of his kidneys to a seriously ill Hindu man. He said it was a simple sacrifice for another human being and was inspired by the Year of Mercy. He also noted that if he could save the life of the ill man, a family would also be saved..

Liffey Sound 96.4 FM: "Thank you" to all the Liffey Sound volunteers who took part in our special broadcast for National Community Radio last Friday which showcased the wide range of programme we broadcast. Also a huge "Thank you" to Joe Coyne and Liam Clarke who presented the 3-hour programme! You can listen back to the show as a podcast on our Facebook page.
