First Holy Communion: Congratulations to the boys and girls from St. Thomas' JNS, Esker, who received their First Holy Communion this weekend.

Sun. 22nd May – The Most Holy Trinity: We were all baptised in the name of the Holy Trinity. We begin each celebration of the Eucharist in the name of the Trinity. So we gather in thanksgiving to God who has shown us mercy in his Son and shared his life with us through the Holy Spirit.

Readings for Today – Sun. 22nd May – The First Reading:

Proverbs depicts the Second Person of the blessed Trinity, the essential Wisdom of God personified, the Logos of later books and the Gospel. The Second Reading, St. Paul advises that we appreciate and realize our peace with God which comes from being justified by faith in Christ. The Gospel: Jesus promises that the Spirit will reveal many things to his followers. Pentecost will enable them to appreciate the full mystery of God's merciful love.

Parish Notices: Collections: Sunday, 15th May: 1st Collection: €: This money goes to pay the every week.

salaries of the Priests of the Parish; Priests in Poorer Parishes; Priests in non income-earning appointments; Priests on study leave; Priests who are ill or retired. 2nd Collection (SHARE) €: For Diocesan Development, Poorer Parishes and Parish Projects. Planned Giving (Envelopes) €& Standing Orders (€505): This money is the major source of income for Parish Expenses, Salaries; Maintenance; Development. We thank all those who contribute faithfully Clamping from Mon. 9th May: St. Thomas' JNS, Scoil Áine Naofa and St. Patrick's Parish have approved the introduction of clamping by an independent company for a trial period commencing on Monday, 9th May. This will be for any vehicles that do not have a permit who park in the school car park or on Church grounds at drop-off (8.30-9.15am) and pick-up times (1.15-3pm). The fine to have a clamp removed is €120, so we hope this will discourage those who have been continuously compromising the health and safety of pupils, parents and staff entering and exiting the school.
