Sunday, 29th January – Catholic Schools Week begins

today – United in faith, hope and love we prepare to celebrate the Eucharist in a spirit of gratitude and praise for God's blessings.

Readings for Today – Sun: 29th January: The First Reading:

Zephaniah the prophet calls on the people to be humble and honest so that they may find peace in the Lord. The Second Reading: St. Paul reminds the Corinthian believers of their humble beginnings and that God alone can make strong through Christ what seems weak by human standards. The Gospel: The Beatitudes taught by Jesus in the Sermon on the Mount place God and God's kingdom as the source and objective of all true goodness and happiness in life.

Neuro Exercise Study: A new study involving Trinity College Dublin seeks volunteers over 50 with mild memory problems to search for possible links between exercise and dementia prevention. Do you have memory problems that interfere with your day-to-day function? Are you becoming more forgetful? Would you be interested in taking part in a 12 month exercise based research study? If you are and would like to receive more information, please contact a member of our research team – email neuroexercise@tcd.ie or telephone 085 2239249.

B.E. – Beginning Experience: - B.E. is a support group for those coping with the pain of loss of their life partner, through death, Separation or Divorce. Few people are able to cope along with the pain of loss. Seeking help is a sign of strength and self-knowledge – not weakness. This is a healing ministry, which helps to resolve the grief that goes with the end of a marriage or relationship. Coping effectively with bereavement is a skill we can all learn. A team, who are themselves widowed, separated or divorced share their experiences with you. Next Coping Programme will commence on Wed. 8th Feb. 2017 for 7 Wednesday evenings, at 7.15pm in White Friars Community Centre, Aungier Street, Dublin 2. For further information telephone 086 0877379 or email bedublin@gmail.com. Check our website www.beginningexperience.ie
