Readings for Today – Sun: 29th Oct: The First Reading: God's anger and his compassion are two sides of a single coin. He is compassionate towards the weak; by the same token his anger is directed against those who prey on the weak and the vulnerable. The Second Reading: The people to whom Paul writes received the good news of Jesus with great joy, in spite of the opposition they experienced. In this, they are a model for all whose faith is resisted or derided. The Gospel: Jesus' opponents love to ask him difficult questions, but the Lord's sincerity overwhelms their malice, his truthfulness wins out over their deceitfulness.

Lucan Disability Action Group: Thank you to everyone for your generosity to our collection in August – it is much appreciated. The vehicles we use to provide affordable accessible transport are now quite old, e.g. the newest vehicle is 11 D and the two oldest are 05 D, so we have quite a challenge on our hands. Our vehicles accommodate three wheelchairs, four seated passengers and provide over 14,000 trips per month. We want you to know that this money makes a significant difference to us and enables us to continue providing disability services in our community.

Mission Sunday Collection: Many thanks for your generous contribution of €1,325 – it is greatly appreciated.
