Baptisms: Welcome into the Christian Community

this weekend – Poppi Clifford, Rosie Stewart, Amelia Callis Freya Doyle McCormack, Holly MacGann, Bohem Stanford.

Sunday, 10th June – The Lord is our light and our salvation. Let us approach him in confidence, as we acknowledge our need of this saving light.

Readings – Sun. 10th June: The First Reading – The first casualty of sin is a breakdown of relationships. Adam does not own up to his sin, but blames Eve, and God for putting her with him! The Second Reading

- St. Paul wisely teaches us to see the difficulties we must bear as a form of training. May the things that trouble us also strengthen us! The Gospel – Jesus' extended family fear that he has gone mad; Jesus, in his turn, redefines his family as those who hear his word. A new kind of family is being formed.

The Joys and Struggles of Family Life: We have all come from a relationship context – however “normal” or complex that may have been. Yet, we rarely ever take anytime out to reflect on the most immediate of all relationships that touches our lives. Pope Francis’s recent text, The Joy of Love, is one of the most significant and inspirational church documents ever published on marriage and family. Yet reading such a document can often be a daunting prospect. The parish would like to assist you with a precious morning for you as a family member with a morning seminar on the Pope’s document. In preparation for the World Meeting of Families, it is also an opportunity to reflect on this theme of Love in the Family. Why not join us for this session?
