this weekend – Éaladh Kenna

Readings – Sun. 20th Oct: The First Reading - The Lord

promises that his deliverance will come soon, that all peoples will be invited to share in it, and there will be joy for all who join themselves to the Lord. This is the whole purpose of mission: the spreading of God's joy. The Second

Reading: Like the first reading, the second makes it clear that mission is about drawing all people into the unfolding plan of God. This unfolding plan is described as a 'mystery'. This does not mean a 'riddle' but refers to the fact that God's unstoppable plan unfolds in a way that is beyond our grasp. The Gospel: From where does the Church's missionary work derive its credibility? Good works on behalf of the poor are always credible and admirable, yet Jesus describes an even deeper source of credibility: when believers are one with Christ and with each other, the Gospel takes flight!

Reflection – Count Your Blessings

If you woke up this morning with more health than illness, you are more blessed than the million who will not survive this week.

If you have food in the refrigerator, clothes on your back, a roof over your head and a place to sleep, you are richer than 75% of this world. (Intercom)
