Baptisms: Welcome into the Christian Community

this weekend – Dominykas Rozmanas

Readings – Sun. 6th Oct: The First Reading - 'How long, Lord...?' These words are scattered throughout Scripture, as a recurrent protest against God's apparent slowness to act. Pending God's action on behalf of his people, our task is to live an upright, faithful life. The Second Reading: Not timidity, less still shame on embarrassment, but a flaming, courageous witness to the truths of our faith. That is the wonderful challenge this reading lays down for us. The Gospel: 'We are merely servants.' This is no put-down for it is a wonderful thing to serve God, to spend ourselves in the service of all that is good. May we be grateful not only for what the Lord gives us, but for all that he asks of us.

Your Best Friend –

When days are long, And nights never end, Remember that you have a Friend, When there are many trials to bear, And no one seems to really care; When all your mountains seem to erupt, And you feel like giving up, When all your plans have gone awry, You just can't face another day; Don't give up. You have a Friend – Jesus Christ. (Helen Ruth Ashton – The Road of Life)
