Sun. 12th April ~ Easter Day of the Lord's

Resurrection: The Third Reading (Exodus 14:15-15:1) The Israelites were saved by passage through water, anticipating the salvation of Christ's disciples through the waters of baptism.

The Epistle (Romans 6:3-11) The death of our Saviour is the heart of Christian living; in baptism we were symbolically drowned, so that we might actually die to all that is not of Christ.

The Gospel: Why was the stone rolled away from a tomb that the Risen Jesus had already left? Not so that he could get out, but so that his followers could get in and see the tomb was empty, that death had been overcome.

General Intercessions

Introduction: On this Easter, our spirits are lifted by the joy and hope of the resurrection. Let us now raise our hearts in confident prayer.

Just as this vigil began with the lighting of a new Easter flame, let us pray that through the ministry of the church, God might rekindle the flame of Easter faith in us and in all his people. Lord, hear us.

Through the prophet Isaiah, God promises to make an everlasting covenant with his people. May God bring healing and hope to a humanity riven and oppressed by concerns of various kinds. Lord, hear us.

That the spirit of rebellion against God's laws and wisdom may be overcome by God's promise, through the prophet Ezekiel, of a new heart and a new spirit. Lord, hear us.

On this day on which we celebrate our Saviour's victory over death, we confidently entrust our deceased loved ones to his death-defeating grace. Lord hear us.

Conclusion: Father, we thank you for your providence, which has brought us to this Easter and for our faith which has enabled us to celebrate it with joy and hope. Through Christ our Lord.
Amen.

A Coronavirus Prayer

Jesus Christ, you travelled through towns and villages “curing every disease and illness.” At your command, the sick were made well. Come to our aid now, in the midst of the global spread of the coronavirus, that we may experience your healing love. Heal those who are sick with the virus. May they regain their strength and health through quality medical care.

Heal us from our fear, which prevents nations from working together and neighbours from helping one another. Heal us from our pride, which can make us claim invulnerability to a disease that knows no borders. Jesus Christ, healer of all, stay by our side in this time of uncertainty and sorrow. Be with those who have died from the virus.

May they be at rest with you in your eternal peace. Be with the families of those who are sick or have died. As they worry and grieve, defend them from illness and despair. May they know your peace. Be with the doctors, nurses, researchers and all medical professionals who seek to heal and help those affected and who put themselves at risk in the process. May they know your protection and peace.

Be with the leaders of all nations. Give them the foresight to act with charity and true concern for the well-being of the people they are meant to serve. Give them the wisdom to invest in long-term solutions that will help prepare for or prevent future outbreaks. May they know your peace, as they work together to achieve it on earth. Whether we are home or abroad, surrounded by many people suffering from this illness or only a few, Jesus Christ, stay with us as we endure and mourn, persist and prepare. In place of our anxiety, give us your peace. Jesus Christ heal us. Amen
